

Promote yourself beyond the competition

This 'one to one' bespoke coaching has been designed specifically to give you a personal and outstanding chance of success in progressing to that next role and beyond.

In what is a highly competitive promotion process many 'words of advice' or group workshops miss the essentials; what do you need?

Personal and honest, progressive and tailored. Simply put, you will manoeuvre through any interview, board or assessment process; confident, assured and at your most powerful best. Not just a pass, not just a result but generating feedback commanding real career progression.

Remember, this is 'one to one' tailored for you with only you in mind

We will apply

- Overview of the processes
- Behaviours and competencies
- Gathering and portraying evidence
- Professional development
- Planning
- Technique and skills
- Confidence in yourself
- Highly effective verbal and non-verbal communication
- Visualising success and creating a positive mind set

We will practice

- Leadership, management, motivation, strategy and organisational change
- Current thinking; legislation, policy, politics economy and future planning
- Decision making, critical incidents, managing operations

“The ladder of success is best climbed by stepping on the rungs of opportunity.”
Ayn Rand

Our specialised team are all qualified executive coaches and importantly, have a vast amount of experience in senior leadership. We are also currently engaged with a number of clients delivering a variety of strategic and operational training at all levels.

For an informal, cost free discussion about this opportunity please contact 07760 158009 or alternatively email paul@zestbusinesscoaching.co.uk